Newsletter 02 - 23rd February

Dear Subscribers Name

This fortnight's news from Safety Bay Bay Primary School is now available to view online.

Principal's Word Families of Safety Bay

It was great to see so many students in orange today highlighting another of our 'You Can Do IT' dispositions that students are working on developing.

Since the beginning of term I've been spending Monday and Tuesday mornings in the year one classrooms, helping with rotation activities in literacy and numeracy. Every week I'm impressed by the persistence and endeavour shown by students who are learning to improve their reading and writing and understand some new numeracy concepts. It is also lots of fun.

This afternoon one of our members of staff, Sharon Young will be a part of the Commonwealth Games Queen's Baton Relay along Arcadia drive. This is scheduled to happen just after 4.30pm. It is a great acknowledgment of her work in the community in the space of mental health.

Playground Update

If you have been through the school recently you would have noticed works underway for our new playground, donated by the P&C. We have had some hold ups, but are hoping for installation of the equipment to begin next week.

Sounds Garden Update

This morning at assembly we had a sneak peak of some of our Sound Garden creations which both look and sound amazing. As we near completion of the project there will be a need for some community assistance. If you have an hour or two available at 10.00am on Friday 2nd March, our designer needs two or three volunteers to help him with the buffing of some structures. Let us know via the office or P&C Facebook page.

Regards

What causes children's mental health difficulties?

Understanding what causes children's mental health difficulties is complex.

Unlike some medical conditions that have a direct cause (eg the flu is caused by a virus), mental health difficulties are considered to be caused by multiple factors that interact in different ways depending on the individual child, family and social circumstances.

The diagram below shows some of the biological, psychological and social factors that influence children's mental health. Any one of these factors can have either a positive or negative influence on a child's mental health. For example, self-esteem may be high or low, family circumstances may be positive or difficult, and both may vary at different times.

Risk and protective factors for children's mental health

One way to understand mental health in children is through risk and protective factors. A number of specific factors have been identified through research that increase the risk of children experiencing poor mental health. Other factors have been identified as having a protective effect. Protective factors act to strengthen children's mental health and wellbeing, making them less likely to develop mental health difficulties. They help to balance out the risk of developing mental health difficulties and build resilience; the ability to cope with life's difficulties.

The diagram above shows some key examples of risk and protective factors that influence children's mental health. It is important to note that just because a child is exposed to mental health risk factors, it does not mean he or she will experience mental health difficulties. However, when multiple risk factors are present this likelihood is significantly increased. The relationship between risk and protective factors is complex. However, it is known that reducing risk factors and building protective factors in children has a positive effect on their mental health and wellbeing. KidsMatter

So come on Safety Bay Primary School!!

Let's get collecting vouchers to receive more sports gear for our school.

Appreciating Parent Input

Thank you to our community minded parents for bringing to our attention the state of charity collection bins situated at the rear of the school.

As this is council land, this concern was reported to the City of Rockingham who promptly instructed their Litter Busters to attend.

We appreciate parents taking the time to contact our front office staff to alert us about matters in the best interests of our students and our school community as a whole. Your input is valued and welcome!

Penguin Pantry News

Thank you to all who have contributed to a great start to the year at the Penguin Pantry. In the first three weeks we have served 753 lunches! – Our most popular lunch items? – Toasted sandwiches, chicken twisters and hot chicken rolls.

Our pizzas are becoming more and more popular too. Because of the focaccia base our pizzas are categorised green and are an item that I am allowed to offer daily. However, I choose to only offer them once a week because although our pizza is a healthy choice, most other pizzas are not. They are usually high in fat and salt and so I don't want to give the impression that it's ok to eat pizza every day, when in most cases it isn't.

Everyone is doing a great job at remembering to bring their empty lunch order bags up the canteen to collect their pre-ordered ice creams – well done. A lot of people do seem to have forgotten the school rules about sharing food and money. Please remember that we will only sell one ice cream or icy pole per child. If you have a child in pre-primary or kindy you can order an ice cream before school that we will send to their class at lunch time.
